Selling Partner API Onboarding Overview

SP-API Registration Overview

Learn how to register as an SP-API developer.

You must register as a Selling Partner API (SP-API) developer before you can register your Selling Partner API application.

The procedure for registering as a developer varies slightly depending on the type of application that you plan to create:

- Private seller applications:

Applications for sellers that are available only to your organization, and are self-authorized. Note that in Seller Central, you must have a professional selling account to develop SP-API private seller applications.
